FIFTY CENTS

Rev. I. R. Hicks 1903 Almanac

To say that this splendid work of science and art is finer and better than ever, is stating it mildly. The demand for it is far beyond all previous years. To say that such results, reaching through thirty years, are not based upon sound sense and usefulness, is an insult to the intelligence of the millions. Prof. Hicks, through this great Almanac, and his famous family and scientific journal, Word and Works, is doing a work for the whole people not approached by any other man or publication. A fair test will prove his to any reasonable person. Added to the most luminous course in astronomy for 1903, forecasts of storms and weather are given, as never before, for every day in the year, all charmingly illustrated with nearly two hundred engravings.
The price of single Almanac, including postage and mailing, is THIRTY CENTS. Word and Works with the Almanac is $1.00 a year.

Sour Stomach

"After I was induced to try CAS-CARET, I will never be without them in my house.
My liver was in a very bad shape, and my head ached and I had stomach trouble. Now, after taking Cascarets, I feel fine. My wife has also had trouble with her stomach, and she feels fine now.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

EDITOR TRIBUNE:

Wishing to do what I believe to be an act of justice to a good medicine and to call special attention to it for the benefit of others, permit me to say through the columns of your excellent paper that for about ten years I was troubled with what the doctors called catarrh of the stomach. At any rate I could scarcely eat anything without great suffering. I doctored until I almost despaired of ever being well again. Fortunately some one recommended Dr. G. N. Sharp's Digestine. I have taken four bottles of the Digestine and am so far improved I can eat my regular meals without suffering any whatever, and since commencing to take the medicine have gained 11 pounds and feel like a new person.
I could scarcely sleep before I began taking the medicine, now I sleep sound and rest well like I did when a child. I recommend Dr.
Sharp's Digestine as one of the best medicines made for any stomach trouble.
Yours Truly,
HEPPIE BRONSON.

EDITOR TRIBUNE:

I wish to add my testimony to the efficiency of Dr.
G. N. Sharp's medicine known as "Digestine." For a number of years I have been troubled with indigestion. I had tried a number of doctors, some of whom said my trouble was a female complaint that could never be cured without an operation. I was fearful of the result of such a performance, I was so reduced and enfeebled by continuous sickness. I could not do my own work and was a constant care to a kind and indulgent husband and family, and really believe I would have died. In one of my worst spells of sickness my husband happened to call in Dr. G. N.
Sharp who pronounced my trouble indigestion and prescribed for me his medicine called Digestine, and at once I began to get better. Six bottles of that medicine has worked a revolution in my condition. I can now do a reasonably good day's housework and feel better than I ever expected to feel again. I owe it all to Dr. Sharp's Digestine.
Respectfully,
LIZZIE BRONSON.

Of Interest to the Housekeeper.

In The Delineator for January there is much matter for housewives. The pages of illustrated cookery portray a decided novelty in the form of a Chinese dinner.
Hot Cakes for breakfast offers some practical suggestions for the morning meal, and a paper on the character of the winter luncheon table is of value to those who have charge of the family board. There are also in this issue of the magazine a number of recipes and a paper of advice to the young housekeeper by Margaret Hall.

More Surprises in Conkey's.

The woman or girl who wishes to learn home needlework the coming year will find a staunch friend in Conkey's Home Journal (Chicago.)
In addition to its regular departments of short and serial stories, high-class needlework for either pleasure or profit, it gives its subscribers a lot of surprises in its December issue. It has put in several new departments which will be welcomed by its feminine readers, notable among which is a fashion department showing hats, costumes, waists and furs which are not second to the styles shown in any other publication. The Journal's fashion department is supplemented by an up-to-date pattern department. The other features of short and serial stories, special illustrated articles and music are up to their usual high standard. Only 50 cts., a year.

will be repeated in the Northwest.
